World Day of Prayer for Vocations

Today is the World Day of Prayer for Vocations. The day is set aside for more fervent prayer that “the Lord of the harvest send laborers into his harvest” (Mt 9:38).

Gracious God, You show your favor to us through the many gifts you give to us. You sent Jesus, your beloved Son, as your servant of justice in our world. Open our minds and hearts to hear your call to us today. Guide women and men to use their gifts to serve the Church and continue the mission of Jesus. We offer this prayer through Christ and the Holy Spirit, now and forever.

Amen.

OFFICE of the ARCHBISHOP

April 2021

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

Here in the United States there are great needs for evangelization and sharing the message of Christ and the beauty of the Church. The Church at home needs to be strengthened. Soon, as a diocese, we will take up the Catholic Home Missions Appeal (CHMA), which supports the neediest dioceses in the United States. This appeal makes the most basic faith programs possible and shares the Gospel message with our brothers and sisters in dioceses where Church communities are struggling.

In their 2000 pastoral letter Responsibility, Rehabilitation, and Restoration, the bishops of the United States called the faithful to embrace an approach to criminal justice that takes into account the dignity of crime victims and their families, communities, and offenders.

The Catholic Home Missions–funded Diocese of Santa Rosa is answering this call for an approach that upholds justice and healing in its six counties of northwestern California, stretching from Napa in the south along the coastline to the Oregon border. The diocese’s Catholic Restorative Justice Ministries program (www.restorejusticesantarosa.org) works to fulfill the bishops’ vision through various activities that include support for inmates reentering society, as well as pastoral ministries for crime victims and their families, justice system personnel, and inmates. The program’s broad range of goals are being implemented, expanded, and refined yearly with financial assistance from the Catholic Home Missions Appeal. When you participate in the appeal, you join in the Church’s healing mission of mercy to all.

Your support of this appeal makes a difference in the lives of our brothers and sisters right here in the United States. Please prayerfully consider how you can support the appeal this year. Thank you for strengthening the Church at home.

Gratefully and with best wishes in Jesus Christ,

Most Reverend Nelson J. Pérez, D.D.
Archbishop of Philadelphia

From the Pastor

In his new book, Let us Dream: The Path to a Better Future, Pope Francis reflects on society and the economy, politics, the planet and the pandemic.

LET US DREAM

THE PATH TO
A BETTER FUTURE

POPE FRANCIS

About the pandemic Pope Francis wrote, “To come out of this crisis better, we have to see clearly, choose well, and act right.”

“This is a moment to dream big... to rethink our priorities—what we value, what we want, what we seek—and commit to act in our daily life on what we have dreamed of.”

“This is the time,” the Pope emphasized, “to restore an ethics of fraternity and solidarity, regenerating bonds of trust and belonging. Only the face of another is capable of awakening the best of ourselves. In serving the people, we save ourselves.”

Convinced that the novel coronavirus has demonstrated our mutual dependency and common vulnerability, Pope Francis applauded the key workers who kept essential services going. They remind us that our lives are a gift and we grow by giving of ourselves: not preserving ourselves, but losing ourselves in service.

“Fraternity,” the Pope insists, “is the new frontier,” capable of knitting together the often competing demands of liberty and equality.

“Without the ‘we’ of a people,” he noted, “of a family, of institutions, of a society that transcends the ‘I’ of individual interests,” we are left with “a battle between factions and interests.”

That was the polarized state in which we entered the covid pandemic. It should not be how we eventually leave it behind, Pope Francis concluded. “We cannot let the current clarifying moment pass us by.”

Let Us Dream: The Path to a Better Future was published by Simon & Schuster on Dec. 1, 2020.

Excerpts from *the MESSAGE OF HIS HOLINESS POPE FRANCIS
FOR THE 2021 WORLD DAY OF VOCATIONS

25 April 2021

Saint Joseph: The Dream of Vocation

Dear brothers and sisters,

The one hundred fiftieth anniversary of the declaration of Saint Joseph as Patron of the Universal Church marked the beginning of a special year devoted to him (cf. Decree of the Apostolic Penitentiary, 8 December 2020). Saint Joseph is an extraordinary figure, yet at the same time one “so close to our own human experience”. He did not do astonishing things, he had no unique charisms, nor did he appear special in the eyes of those who met him. He was not famous or even noteworthy: the Gospels do not report even a single word of his. Still, through his ordinary life, he accomplished something extraordinary in the eyes of God.

God looks on the heart (cf. 1 Sam 16:7), and in Saint Joseph he recognized the heart of a father, able to give and generate life in the midst of daily routines. Vocations have this same goal: to beget and renew lives every day. The Lord desires to shape the hearts of fathers and mothers: hearts that are open, capable of great initiatives, generous in self-giving, compassionate in comforting anxieties and steadfast in strengthening hopes. The priesthood and the consecrated life greatly need these qualities nowadays, in times marked by fragility but also by the sufferings due to the pandemic, which has spawned uncertainties and fears about the future and the very meaning of life. Saint Joseph comes to meet us in his gentle way, as one of “the saints next door”. At the same time, his strong witness can guide us on the journey.

Saint Joseph suggests to us three key words for each individual’s vocation. The first is dream. Everyone dreams of finding fulfilment in life. We rightly nurture great hopes, lofty aspirations that ephemeral goals – like success, money and entertainment – cannot satisfy. If we were to ask people to express in one word their life’s dream, it would not be difficult to imagine the answer: “to be loved”. It is love that gives meaning to life, because it reveals life’s mystery. Indeed, we only have life if we give it; we truly possess it only if we generously give it away. Saint Joseph has much to tell us in this regard, because, through the dreams that God inspired in him, he made of his life a gift.

The Gospels tell us of four dreams (cf. Mt 1:20; 2:13,19,22). They were calls from God, but they were not easy to accept. After each dream, Joseph had to change his plans and take a risk, sacrificing his own plans in order to follow the mysterious designs of God, whom he trusted completely. We may ask ourselves, “Why put so much trust in a dream in the night?” Although a dream was considered very important in ancient times, it was still a small thing in the face of the concrete reality of life. Yet Saint Joseph let himself be guided by his dreams without hesitation. Why? Because his heart was directed to God; it was already inclined towards him. A small indication was enough for his watchful “inner ear” to recognize God’s voice. This applies also to our calling: God does not like to reveal himself in a spectacular way, pressuring our freedom. He conveys his plans to us with gentleness. He does not overwhelm us with dazzling visions but quietly speaks in the depths of our heart, drawing near to us and speaking to us through our thoughts and feelings. In this way, as he did with Saint Joseph, he sets before us profound and unexpected horizons.

Saint Joseph is an outstanding example of acceptance of God’s plans. Yet his was an active acceptance: never reluctant or resigned. Joseph was “certainly not passively resigned, but courageously and firmly proactive” (Patris Corde, 4). May he help everyone, especially young people who are discerning, to make God’s dreams for them come true. May he inspire in them the courage to say “yes” to the Lord who always surprises and never disappoints.

Excerpts from *the MESSAGE OF HIS HOLINESS POPE FRANCIS
FOR THE 2021 WORLD DAY OF VOCATIONS (cont'd)

A second word marks the journey of Saint Joseph and that of vocation: service. The Gospels show how Joseph lived entirely for others and never for himself. The holy people of God invoke him as the most chaste spouse, based on his ability to love unreservedly. His loving care has spanned generations; his attentive guardianship has made him patron of the Church. As one who knew how to embody the meaning of self-giving in life, Joseph is also the patron of a happy death. His service and sacrifices were only possible, however, because they were sustained by a greater love: “Every true vocation is born of the gift of oneself, which is the fruit of mature sacrifice. The priesthood and consecrated life likewise require this kind of maturity. Whatever our vocation, whether to marriage, celibacy or virginity, our gift of self will not come to fulfilment if it stops at sacrifice; were that the case, instead of becoming a sign of the beauty and joy of love, the gift of self would risk being an expression of unhappiness, sadness and frustration” (ibid., 7).

For Saint Joseph, service – as a concrete expression of the gift of self – did not remain simply a high ideal, but became a rule for daily life. He strove to find and prepare a place where Jesus could be born; he did his utmost to protect him from Herod’s wrath by arranging a hasty journey into Egypt; he immediately returned to Jerusalem when Jesus was lost; he supported his family by his work, even in a foreign land. In short, he adapted to different circumstances with the attitude of those who do not grow discouraged when life does not turn out as they wished; he showed the willingness typical of those who live to serve. In this way, Joseph welcomed life’s frequent and often unexpected journeys: from Nazareth to Bethlehem for the census, then to Egypt and again to Nazareth, and every year to Jerusalem. Each time he was willing to face new circumstances without complaining, ever ready to give a hand to help resolve situations. We could say that this was the outstretched hand of our heavenly Father reaching out to his Son on earth. Joseph cannot fail to be a model for all vocations, called to be the ever-active hands of the Father, outstretched to his children.

Together with God’s call, which makes our greatest dreams come true, and our response, which is made up of generous service and attentive care, there is a third characteristic of Saint Joseph’s daily life and our Christian vocation, namely fidelity. Joseph is the “righteous man” (Mt 1:19) who daily perseveres in quietly serving God and his plans. At a particularly difficult moment in his life, he thoughtfully considered what to do (cf. v. 20). He did not let himself be hastily pressured. He did not yield to the temptation to act rashly, simply following his instincts or living for the moment. Instead, he pondered things patiently. He knew that success in life is built on constant fidelity to important decisions. This was reflected in his perseverance in plying the trade of a humble carpenter (cf. Mt 13:55), a quiet perseverance that made no news in his own time, yet has inspired the daily lives of countless fathers, laborers and Christians ever since. For a vocation – like life itself – matures only through daily fidelity.

This fidelity is the secret of joy. A hymn in the liturgy speaks of the “transparent joy” present in the home of Nazareth. It is the joy of simplicity, the joy experienced daily by those who care for what truly matters: faithful closeness to God and to our neighbor. How good it would be if the same atmosphere, simple and radiant, sober and hopeful, were to pervade our seminaries, religious houses and presbyteries! I pray that you will experience this same joy, dear brothers and sisters who have generously made God the dream of your lives, serving him in your brothers and sisters through a fidelity that is a powerful testimony in an age of ephemeral choices and emotions that bring no lasting joy. May Saint Joseph, protector of vocations, accompany you with his fatherly heart!

Francis

Holy Rosary Review

7,184 Cans!!! Holy Rosary students and their families collected nonperishable items during the month of March as a donation to the Patrician Society in Norristown. This drive was proposed by the Ancient Order of Hibernians, Notre Dame Division 1, of Montgomery County. Our Student Council officers, Mark Newell, Emmett Baxter, Ella Pettica, and Vickie Lehatto; along with their moderators, Mr. Joseph Gronski, Mr. Robert Weinert and Mrs. Donna Koneski, planned and encouraged the drive.

Similar to the initiative we launched in November, a dress down day was the promised reward for 100 donated cans from a homeroom. Also, an additional dress down day was the icing on the cake for the homeroom that collected the most cans in the entire school. Some homerooms met the 100 can challenge early, while other smaller homerooms struggled to achieve their goal.

When the end of March approached and the competition was at its peak, there was one lone homeroom that was still short of the 100 can mark. In a true Christian and Holy Rosary family manner, larger homerooms asked if they could donate some of their cans to help that homeroom reach its mark. It wasn't needed though, because that small homeroom was determined to do it on their own. Through their determination, they ended up with 146 cans. 4B was the winning class of the second dress down day with a total of 2,032 cans!

We thought in November that the total of 3,700 cans was amazing, but the generosity of our families was doubly incredible this time around. The Patrician Society was amazed, once again, and immensely thankful that the community cupboards were filled in time for Easter. This Lent, our students showed that they understand what disciples of Jesus look like.
