The Francis Effect
Excerpts from the Documentary Synopsis
Salt and Light TV
<https://saltandlighttv.org/thefranciseffect/>

Eight years ago, on March 13, 2013, Jorge Mario Bergoglio received the call in the Sistine Chapel to rebuild, repair, renew and heal the Church.

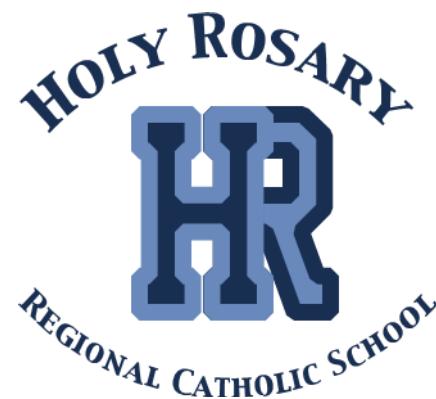

"True faith in the incarnate Son of God is inseparable from self-giving, from membership in the community, from service, from reconciliation with others," Pope Francis wrote. "The Son of God, by becoming flesh, summoned us to the revolution of tenderness" The Joy of the Gospel (Evangelii Gaudium, 88).

The spontaneity of his words and actions and his down-to-earth style [has] generated unprecedented and overwhelmingly positive global attention. It is any wonder then, why the world is listening to him?

The Francis Effect [documentary] takes a critical and in-depth look at how the Catholic Church is rapidly changing under the leadership and vision of Pope Francis. The film begins by situating his pontificate in a wider historical context, referencing an essay written by German theologian Father Karl Rahner, S.J.—one of the most influential Catholic thinkers of the 20th century. Rahner proposed that the Second Vatican Council of the 1960's was the beginning of a fundamental transformation of the Catholic Church into a fully world religion. The person and ministry of Pope Francis are seen as part of the continuing realization of that transformation.

Pope Francis has not come to overturn doctrine and age-old beliefs that are the bedrock of our Catholic Christian faith! He wants to make those teachings understandable and part of our lives. He opens doors to a faith that offers attractive, compelling answers to questions deep in the hearts of all men and women. There is something incredibly appealing here not only to Catholics, but to Christians and to all men and women of good will.

Pope Francis reminds us each day of the words of his predecessor Pope St. John XXIII at the beginning of Second Vatican Council: "The substance of the ancient doctrine of the Deposit of Faith is one thing, and the way it is presented is another." With Pope Francis, it is the same story we have heard for ages, but the packaging has indeed changed!

Archdiocesan Novena to Saint Joseph

The Archdiocesan Novena to Saint Joseph will begin on Friday, Mar. 19 and continue on the 19th of each month through November. The praying of this Novena is to unite everyone in the Archdiocese in confident prayer to the Lord through the intercession of Saint Joseph.

Our help is in the name of the Lord who made heaven and earth.

The Holy Gospel according to Matthew (1:16, 18-21, 24a):

Jacob was the father of Joseph, the husband of Mary. Of her was born Jesus who is called the Christ. Now this is how the birth of Jesus Christ came about. When his mother Mary was betrothed to Joseph, but before they lived together, she was found with child through the Holy Spirit. Joseph her husband, since he was a righteous man, yet unwilling to expose her to shame, decided to divorce her quietly. Such was his intention when, behold, the angel of the Lord appeared to him in a dream and said, "Joseph, son of David, do not be afraid to take Mary your wife into your home. For it is through the Holy Spirit that this child has been conceived in her. She will bear a son and you are to name him Jesus, because he will save his people from their sins." When Joseph awoke, he did as the angel of the Lord had commanded him and took his wife into his home. The Gospel of the Lord. Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ.

O Saint Joseph, Spouse of the Blessed Virgin Mary and Foster Father of the Divine Child, Jesus, you were entrusted as the protective guardian of the Holy Family in Nazareth. Give today this same protection to the family of the Church in the Archdiocese of Philadelphia.

Intercede with Christ before the Father of us all:

For the clergy and faithful,

For married couples and single men and women,

For all those in the consecrated life,

For families and young people,

For the poor, the lonely and neglected,

For all the sick, suffering and dying.

For a deepening of our spiritual life,

For a strengthening of the moral life,

For a bolder witness to the truth of the Gospel.

For all of us, Saint Joseph, with you as our firm example, may we remain confident in the plan of the Father for us, with lives of faith rooted in the saving death and resurrection of his Son and ever faithful to the demands of the Christian life with the grace of the Holy Spirit.

Through Christ our Lord.

Amen.

Saint Joseph, patron and protector of the Universal Church, pray for us!

Holy Rosary Review

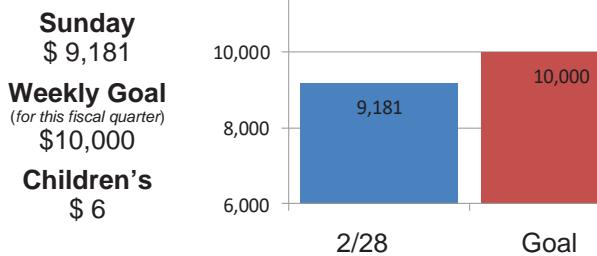

What will your life look like when you are 100? This past week Holy Rosary's kindergarten and first grade celebrated their 100th day of school, and if their perspective is any indication, 100 is looking great! Mrs. Donna Koneski's First grade celebration of this milestone began with completing 100 exercises, printing numbers from 1 to 100, and reading the book "100 Day Worries". They competed in math games that involved numbers 1 to 100; they counted and posted 100 stickers onto beautiful rainbows and each student decorated their own 100 day hat. Their festivities culminated in an oral presentation where the students were dressed as centenarians. Gray hair, curlers, glasses with chains, pearls, bowties and canes were all part of the day's attire!

Kindergarten began their day singing and dancing to specially titled "100 Days of School" songs. Next, along with their teacher, Mrs. Christina Pickering, they participated in a 100th day exercise challenge. This followed with a concerted effort to find and write 100 words as they moved through their room. Additionally, they brainstormed how they would spend $100. Surprisingly some chose to save it- potential investment specialists! They capped off their day enjoying the book "Miss Bindergarten Gets Ready to Celebrate the 100th Day of Kindergarten," and, of course, a nap was next on the to do list!

Our Kindergarten and First grade students are 100 days smarter than when they entered Holy Rosary in September of 2020!
